POETRY.

THE WANDERING BOY. A SONG .- BY HENRY KIRKE WHITE. WREN the winter wind waistles along the will

And the cottager shuts on the beggar his door; When the chilling tear stands in my comfor les

On how hard is the lot of the wandering boy ! The winter is cold, and I have no vest, And my heart it is cold as it bears in my breast ; No father, no mother, no kind ed have I,

For I am a parentless wandering boy.

Yet I had a home, and I once had a sire, I mot ier, who granted each infant desire ; Our cottinge it stood in a wood-embowerld vale, Where the ring-dove would warble its sorrow-

But my father and mother were summon'd and he left me to hard hearted strangers I fled from their rigour with many a sigh,

And now I'm a poor thatle wandering boy. The wind it is keen, and the snow loads the

and, no one will list to my innocent tale ; I'il go to, the grave where my parents toth lie, d death shall befriend the poor wandering

MISCELLANY.

THE BIBLE ..... No. VIII,

5. The Biole Society of Virginia.

Established June 22, 1913. The following Extracts from the Address of this Society, are considered to be worthy of a place in this collection, and they will, in the opinion of the transcriber, be acceptable to the reader.

"It would seem needless, as well as arrogent to recommend this Book to the christian public They who are acquainted with its doctrines, its recepts and promises; and have felt their lingering influences, have, written on their hearts, a commendation of the Holy Scriptures, which supercede the necessity of any other: To persons of a contrary character we would suggest, -that these writings were given by inspiration of God; and are profitable for correction, for repro f, for instructo an righteousness. They make known to us what God is; and the duty which he requires of man - they afford the best rules of " holy living" and teach the only way to die happily. They are adapted to every age and nation; and to every variety in the circumstances of man.-They teach rulers to love righteousness; and the people to render obedience to the laws, and reverence to the magistrate. They teach husbands to be faithful, wives to be submissive, ant children to be dutiful; they make humane masters, and honest, industrious servants; they lay suitable restraints upon the passions of the young, and afford thoughts to the old. They are our guide in perplexity, our confort in sorrow, our stay and support in the hour of death. The light that beam from them itiuminates, even beaveniy." in a word, they fit us for both worlds; for earth and heaven, for the life that now is, and that which is to come " " Should the Bible Society of Virginia be able to furnish the word of life to a I the pour in our State, even this will be a work of love, to be had in everlasting remembrance."

" As there is great need for Bible Societies, so there is much to encourage the hope that our labour shall not be in vain in the Lord. The cause which we espouse is the cause of tieaven. No institution of charity that the world ever saw, have been so favoured by a gracious Providence, as those which have for their simple and sublime Noject, the universal diffusion of the Holy scriptures. God smiles upon their work of tove in which his people are engaged, -- Christians of all denominations have united in this, as a common cause. (atholics and Protestants of every denomination, have, in many instances, combined their efforts in this glorious work, and the effect has been to shake the foundation of those prejudices which have long been the reproach of the church- Christians who have been for ages kept asunder, have been brought togeder. They have seen that, although differing in minor matters, they have all one great object in view, the glory of God in the salvation of man; and they have loved as brethren .-- Protestant: have held out the hand of brotherly kindness to Catholics; and Catholics Protestants, for the gift of the Bible. To hear the acknowledgments of gratitude made by the objects. is addressed to the God of love, that he ever put it into the hearts of his people to establish Bible Bibles. In places where, thirty years ago, the orgies of a cruel superstition were perpetrated, the God of love is worshipped in spirit and in truth .-Wretches who seemed destined to stain with their washed in the fountain opened in Mount Zion, and sing the praise of the Lamb of God that taketh away the sin of the world." * * * *

"The managers of the Bible society of Virginia would then make a solemn and affectionate appeal to the people of this state, in behalf of the poor and try and among the Heathen: and would call upon them, as men, as patriots, or christians, to aid in extending the saving health of the gospel to all nation .- Let all those whom Heaven hath blessed

"The managers cannot conclude their address without commending their intant institution to the efforts fruitless. They also pray for the same ble in on their country. May it be a land of righteousness and peace. May Virginia be an instrument in promoting the great designs of heavenly mercy to a lost world; and may the effort now commenced, never cease, until every family on earth is possessed of a bible, and every heart made to rejoice in the salvation of God."

" The Ides of March remember."

The following paragraph is from a late Paris paper; by which it will be seen that the month of March stands very conspicuous in the history of Buonaparte:-

"March, 1796, Buonaparte was appointed General in chief of the French army in Italy -March, 1802, he concluded the Peace of Amiens-March, 1804, he caused the Duke d'Enghei to be murdered-March, 1806, he accepted the crown of Italy-March, 1808, he commenced his attack on Spain-March, 1809, he renewed war against i Austriche-March, 1810, he received in France (his afterwards Queen) l'Archduchesse Maria Louisa-March, 1811, he announced the birth of his son, king of Rome-March, 1812, he first attacked the Russians-March, 1813, he collected fresh forces in Germany against the Allies-March, 1814, he abdicated his crown -March, 1815, he was again master of Paris -March, 1816, .... who knows but Bona-. parte will have escaped from St. Helena?"

More of the late Imperial Family of France.

NAPOLEON BUONAPARTE. -Safe in the island of St. Heiena, in the southern ocean; and apparently happy .- He has found by sad experience, " Uneasy lies the head that wears a crown.

Joseph Buonaparte-In the United States,-quietly located in New York, and living retired and cautious. His family are in Paris, and apparently attached to the Bourbons Lucien Buonagarte-In Rome, under engage ments not to leave the city without the consent of his Holiness the Pope. Louis Buonaparte, Marie Letitia, (the Mother of his hopeful family) and Cardinal FECH, her broth-Jerome Buonaparte-In Elwangen, in the Kingdom of Wirtemberg ;- The Sovereign of which has engaged to the allies to prevent his leaving that

Marc-Ann-Flize, Marie-Paulina, and Horlenses Eugenie, continue in and near Switzerland. Joachim Murat, -said to have been in Corsida : and had sailed from thence. He and his Lady have the permission of the Austrian Emperor to reside Accounts from Constanthople of Sept 9 announce thatthe Services have sent depues to that ci y, and to the luckish army, offering submission in such terms that hosilities will probably cease he arrangement however had not taken effect on the 25th of the same month, as several obstinate combats had recently taken place. The account of ah insurfection at 5m ran, the darkness of the grave, and enable us to see be- is contradicted. The troops of Muh med youd it a "a better country" than this, "even a Aly Pasha I Egypt, at Cairo, have revoled, committed great excesses, and compelled he governor to retire within the citadel. he plague at Constantinople had not abated, but the number of cases of it increased, in consequence of the great concourse of people at the festival of Buiram - Ref.

> Calcuita papers of May 2d and 3d have been received in London, containing accounts of a severe action, which took place on the 15th of April, under the walls of Malbun. between a detachment of English troops and Seapoys under Gen Ochterlony, and 2000 Goorkahs under Umr Singh Kajee The Goorkahs were defeated with the loss of 400 killed and wounded. Bughtee, the uncle of Umr, and Gujeccu his cousin were among the slain It was thought that this victory must be speedily followed by the fall of fortified posts of Naloun and Somjgur into the hands of the English -ibid.

When Fouche was married to Madamoiselle Castellane, it is said that he applied to have implored the benediction of Heaven u, on the king to witness the contract of marriage, and he complied with the request.-He then of this charity, is enough to make a christian think applied to the Duchess d' Angouleme, but himself infortunate, in not having heretofore aided she refused to see him, and in answer to his in the distribution of the Bibles. From many parts message she sent the following note. "M. of the world, the voice of praise and thanksgiving le Duc d'Otrante knows that I have no share in the government, consequently my wit-Societies. From the northern to the southern ex- nessing his contract of marriage can be of tremity of Europe, Africa and Asia, and from ma- no use to him; but as a private individual ny parts of this western world, prayer is offered to I cannot forget, what he ought also to recol-Almighty God for his blessing on those who give lect, that I am the daughter of Louis XVI."

Extraordinary Phenomenon .- A letter blood the altars of the Indian moloch, are now from the Isle of France mentions that on the 15th of February last a column of fiery air passed the Island, overthrew and destroyed several buildings by its violence, and scorched the thatch of houses by its heat. This phenomenon was followed by destitute, the ignorant and erring, both in our count excessive heat, in consequence of waich many deaths had happened.

One of the hirelings of the administrain the ratore, contribute to this noble charity. Ition has exultingly asserted, that General Let Auxiliary Societies be formed in every county . Jackson had ascribed his success at Newand town ni our state to correspond with the Parent Orleans to the "wisdom of the councils uninstitution, afford their contributions, and receive der which he acted ;- But the brave Genginia be one great Bible Society, vigorously exert- eral himself has taken an early opportunity ing its all to diffus , widely as the ruin produced by to contradict the calumny; and in the pressin the remedy provided in the Gospel of the grace ence of all Mr. M. dison's war Counselle s, has emphatically declar d, that it was "to Heaven, and to the brevery of his sources, car and favor of Almighty God, and imploring his he was indebted;"-which all will contess tlessing, without which all schemes are vein, all to be quite another source of support.
